

Introduction to the Social Sciences

Unit 1 Test Review

1. Define psychology, sociology, and anthropology
2. Social scientists are concerned with many social problems / questions such as “Why do men act violently towards women?” Be able to understand the different types of questions that each social scientist might ask when faced with a dilemma. ?
3. Identify the 3 Fields of Study of Sociology and describe each.
4. Identify the key contributors to the Field of Sociology and explain their significance.
5. Identify and describe the 3 Fields of Study in Psychology.
6. Identify the key contributors to the Field of Psychology and explain their significance
7. Identify and describe the 3 Fields of Anthropology.
8. Identify the key contributors to the Field of Anthropology and explain their significance.
9. State and explain the five stages of the inquiry process. Be sure to include the methods of gathering and analyzing data