

Name: _____

The Interview Rubric

Criteria	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1	Mark
Knowledge / Understanding Information - at least 10 interesting facts - enriching detail	Extends background circumstances by adding more than is required	Provides all required information with reasonable detail	Provides some questionable information that lacks detail	Provides limited or no solid information or detail	<hr/> 10
Thinking / Inquiry Process - focused and on task during rehearsal period - contributed to group - productive and energetic	Consistently on task and focused during rehearsal. Demonstrates high energy and effective contribution to the group.	On task and focused most of the time. Effective contribution to the group.	Somewhat on task. Attempted to contribute to the performance but with limited results.	Off task most or all of the time. Contributed little to help develop a dynamic performance.	<hr/> 10
Communication Voice/Movement - enunciation - rate, pitch, tone - volume - variety of gestures - body movements - facial expressions - illuminates character	Communicates and moves expressively, revealing a fictional perspective.	Communicates and moves reasonably, revealing a fictional perspective.	Attempts to communicate and move with effect but is distracted or cannot separate from self.	Uses limited or no voice and movement techniques.	<hr/> 10
Creation Character - commits to role - reveals emotions	Communicates character expressively	Communicates character reasonably	Attempts to portray character but is distracted	Uses limited or inappropriate acting technique. Acts as self rather than character.	<hr/> 10
				TOTAL	<hr/> 40